FLYSPACE: PRODUCTION MANAGEMENT

Dear Potential Sponsor's,

I hope this letter finds you well. ACH Clear Pathways extend an exciting opportunity for your corporation to join us as a Centre Avenue of Hope Sponsor for the 4th Annual Hill District Arts Festival, taking place this year in Pittsburgh. The festival continues to be a highlight for the Hill District, attracting residents, artists, and art lovers from across the region. This year, Clean Slate E3, a non-profit organization that connects Pittsburgh's residents with resources and provides scholarships for Housing Authority residents, will serve as our Presenting Sponsor.

The Hill District Arts Festival has grown into a signature event, reaching crowds of 500 to 1,000 attendees per day. We are proud to showcase the talents of local artists, food vendors, performing artists, and an evening concert by a nationally known performer. The festival continues to be a testament to the resilience, creativity, and spirit of the Hill District, and it offers a powerful platform for community engagement and cultural celebration.

Your sponsorship will ensure prominent visibility through event signage, marketing materials, and digital promotions, helping to elevate your corporations' profile within the Hill District community. While providing significant support to the event and help sustain our commitment to providing a dynamic arts experience for the Pittsburgh community.

By supporting a festival that fosters creativity and community empowerment, your corporation will be recognized as a champion of local arts and social responsibility. Associating your brand with an event that highlights diversity, inclusivity, and cultural enrichment will position your company as one that cares deeply about Pittsburgh's growth and prosperity.

Your sponsorship connects your brand with two key organizations—ACH Clear Pathways and Clean Slate E3—both of which are dedicated to empowering individuals through the arts and education. This partnership allows your company to demonstrate its commitment to the art and wellness and positively impact local communities, reinforcing your company's values and creating a legacy of support.

Please don't hesitate to reach out to discuss the sponsorship package in further detail or to confirm your support. We can be reached 412-815-0271 or lhenson@achcp.org and I'd be happy to answer any questions you may have. Thank you for considering this opportunity to partner with us in creating an event that will inspire, uplift, and unite our community.

Sincerely,

Lauryn Henson
